Grand Knight's Message

Brother Knights,

O come, O come, Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel

This traditional Christmas carol has to be one of our favorites during Advent. The beautiful lyrics and melody evoke that sense of waiting and anticipation of the birth of Christ - Emmanuel , God with us. I hope for all of us, that this anticipation of the greatest miracle of all time will give us a profound sense of peace and joy.

Peace be with you, Merry Christmas and best wishes for a 4H New Year!*

Christmas Anonymous recap

Wow, what an experience I had as first time volunteer loader, street side loading cars with food and toys this past Saturday 12/12/15. If you need some injection of hope and goodwill please consider some volunteer aspect of this for next year!

Steve Kunkel -- no he's not done, just starting the morning staging for the food baskets!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!. I'm sure you heard many of the clients expressing how much they appreciate all that do for them through Christmas Anonymous. What they say means much more than anything that I could. I'm always touched by the many genuine sentiments of appreciation. This is hard work, so I'm sure that your all feeling a little sore today (I know I am). It is also rather chaotic, and yesterday morning is even more so than usual (I'm going to work on that for next year), so I really appreciate all of you pitching in and helping in any way that you saw that was needed.

Ken, thank Chris and Kevin for me. Having a few young backs in the afternoon really helped out.

Regards,

Steve and Sharon Kunkel

Yes, Ray did try to ride that bike... and was sorry.

So these pics can't capture the full scale of this effort, but provide only a glimpse. For the 53rd year, Christmas joy was spread to many families!
